OPERA - CONCERT - BALLET - FESTIVAL ● ● ● ●

Liège makes the taste buds salivate with its famous waffles and coffees, but the city also thrills art lovers with its cultural richness to be enjoyed on a weekend. La Cité ardente offers a great eclecticism between its historic squares, its museums and the modernity of its new buildings such as the Guillemins station. For music lovers, the former capital of Wallonia is a must, with the Orchester Philharmonique Royal de Liège and the Opéra Royal de Wallonie which is celebrating its 200th anniversary this season.

Two exceptional great voices feature in Donizetti's exquisite Daughter of the Regiment. The bubbly Jodie Devos and the seductive Lawrence Brownlee will be the fireworks in the production signed by the merry sidekicks, Corinne and Gilles Benizio. Joy and vocal wonder are on the program!

Another pleasure of the stay, a private guide takes you to discover the historic heart of Liège. Several itineraries will be suggested to you, such as a visit to a museum combined with the discovery of part of the City and, above all, the possibility of visiting the Royal Opera of Wallonia without forgetting a tempting gastronomic visit!
